Thursday October 21 – A late afternoon arrival to the Sturbridge Host Hotel on Cedar Lake allows you to enjoy pumpkin carving activities and homemade cookies and seasonal beverages at check-in. Dinner will be served this evening at the Publick House, an historic Inn serving traditional New England fare. Tonight enjoy an evening with a psychic medium.

Friday October 22 – Your day will begin with a full buffet breakfast at the hotel then off to Salem. A local guide will be with you for the day as you visit the Witch Museum, and enjoy a driving tour of the “Witch City”... site of the Salem Witch Trials of 1692. After the driving tour you will have free time in Salem to enjoy the many events scheduled in the city for the “Haunted Happenings” Celebration. Lunch will be on your own this afternoon.

This afternoon you will enjoy a performance of Cry Innocent... a live performance where the audience is the jury at the trial of Bridget Bishop, the first person to be hanged in the Salem witch trials of 1692. After an included dinner you will end the evening with a walk on the Terror Trail. This spooky tour features tales of local murders, spectral assaults, and haunted houses.

Saturday October 23 - Start your day with a full buffet breakfast at the hotel. From there you will have free time on the Sturbridge Common to view entries in the 21st annual Scarecrow Contest where local adults, children, groups and businesses compete for the best scarecrow. After enjoying your free time you will be departing mid morning for home.
